

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Let's visit Zambia!

Learning Outcome

Understand detailed descriptions of real or imaginary events and experiences in present, past or future and in spoken or written texts.

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about different cultures, civilizations, and social issues.
- I can talk about unusual events in the past.
- I can report facts about events or actions.

Ask your partner:

- What do you know about countries in Africa?
- What hardships do you think the poorer people in Africa have to deal with?

Let's Explore!

Have you ever been to Zambia?

* "Zambia" used to be part of Rhodesia.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Have you ever been to Zambia? Have you traveled through this large country that's about the size of Texas yet? Have you noticed that there are only 10 million people living there so far? Have you discovered that up to now the majority of Zambians still live in rural villages? Or, have you only started to learn about Zambia now?

Today, many Zambians live in urban areas. That is where the work being offered in services and factories can be found. In the north, the people being put under economic pressure as copper production lessens, need alternatives. The number of jobs being reduced changes lives. Families move to cities.

Due to migration to urban areas, the number of farmers in Zambia has also grown smaller. This has resulted in a reduction in the crops being produced. Women, being left behind, work family farms but cannot grow as much on their own.

Despite the hardships, life in Zambia is still good. People there take pleasure in the simple things, and there is an atmosphere of sharing and togetherness. Dance, accompanied by the drum, xylophone, or mbira, plays an important cultural role in Zambia. Dances being performed to celebrate personal milestones as well as major community and group events are common. The occasions are festive.

What, you may ask, has the Zambian government done recently to counteract Western influence? Well, institutions are being established to protect the country's culture and heritage and keep the old traditions alive. Visitors to Zambia today are encouraged to attend one of the over 20 annual traditional ceremonies being held throughout the country during the year.

Let's Practice!

Zambia has known hardship for a long time!

Instructions: Read the paragraph. Complete the gaps with the phrases provided below. Read the text aloud. Check your pronunciation with your instructor.

- Despite the hardships,
 - This has resulted in
 - Dance, accompanied by the drum, xylophone, or mbira,
 - Dances being performed to
 - The occasions
 - Due to migration to urban areas,
1. _____ the number of farmers in Zambia has also decreased.
 2. _____ a reduction in the crops being produced. Women, being left behind, work family farms but cannot grow as much on their own.
 3. _____ life in Zambia is still good. People there take pleasure in the simple things, and there is an atmosphere of sharing and togetherness.
 4. _____ plays an important cultural role in Zambia.
 5. _____ celebrate personal milestones as well as major community and group events are common.
 6. _____ are festive.

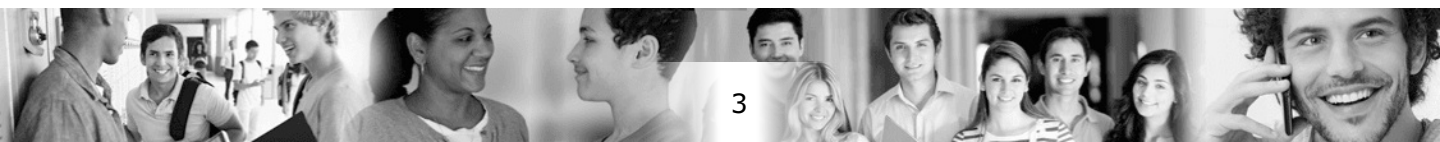

Let's Practice!

Would you like to know more about Zambia?

Instructions: Choose the option that best completes the sentence. Read the complete sentences aloud.

- In the north, the people _____ under economic pressure as copper production lessens, need alternatives.
a) being put b) was put c) put
- That is where the work _____ in services and factories can be found.
a) being offered b) was offered c) offered
- The number of job _____ changes lives.
a) reduced b) being reduced c) was reduced
- This has resulted in a reduction in the crops _____.
a) producing b) produced c) being produced
- Institutions are _____ to protect the country's culture and heritage and keep the old traditions alive.
a) establishes b) establish c) being established

Extension Activity

Plan a Zambian adventure!

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Go online or to the library to look up places to visit in Zambia.
- Plan a trip deciding where to go and what to do.
- Write an email to a friend inviting them to go with you on the trip.
- Explain the itinerary and why you have chosen those particular places.
- Read you email to a partner.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I find places to visit in Zambia.

☐ ☐

I plan a trip giving reporting facts and actions.

☐ ☐

I write an email inviting a friend to go on the trip.

☐ ☐

I explain why I have chosen the places on the itinerary.

☐ ☐

I share my email with a partner.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- majority (noun): the largest part e.g. The majority of Zambians still live in rural villages.
- economic pressure (expression): when the economy is not good e.g. The people are being put under economic pressure.
- to lessen (verb): to make smaller
e.g. As copper production lessens, people need alternatives.
- migration (noun): moving to another area to live
e.g. Due to migration to urban areas, the number of farmers in Zambia has also grown smaller.
- hardship (noun): difficult conditions
e.g. Despite the hardships, life in Zambia is still good.
- sharing (noun): experiencing together
e.g. There is an atmosphere of sharing.
- mbira (noun): a small thumb piano
e.g. Dance, is accompanied by the drum, xylophone, or mbira.
- togetherness (noun): a feeling of being united in friendship
e.g. Dance is one way of bringing togetherness.

Learning Points

Present Perfect for Unusual Events: Review

You use the Present Perfect tense in a variety of ways to connect the past with the present.

Look at the chart for a review of some ways to use the Present Perfect tense and what kind of words you commonly use with it:

Use	Words Commonly Used With It	Example
To talk or ask about recently finished events or actions with a connection to the present	just only just recently	Have the women just been left behind to work the land? Or, have you only just started to learn about Zambia now? What, you may ask, has the Zambian government done recently to counteract Western influence?
To talk or ask about experiences	ever (in questions)	Have you ever been to Zambia?

Examples:

- Have you ever been to Zambia?
- Have you travelled through this large country that's about the size of Texas yet?
- Have you noticed that there are only 10 million people living there so far?
- Have you discovered that up to now the majority of Zambians still live in rural villages?
- Or, have you only just started to learn about Zambia now?
- What, you may ask, has the Zambian government done recently to counteract Western influence?
- Have the women just been left behind to work the land?

Learning Points

Talking about Civilizations

When you want to talk about a civilization, you usually refer to a particular society in a particular place or at a particular time.

There are different topics you can refer to, such as:

people: their nationality, their ethnicity, ancestry
geography: location, size, physical features, landscapes culture: languages spoken, art, music, dance, literature
religion: beliefs
housing: materials used historical events
the government

Examples:

- The majority of Zambians still live in rural villages.
- Due to migration to urban areas, the number of farmers in Zambia has decreased.
- Dance, accompanied by the drum, xylophone, or mbira, plays an important cultural role in Zambia.
- Traditional ceremonies are held throughout the country during the year.

